

COLEG GWENT

To investigate complaints thoroughly, and to provide a speedy remedy where appropriate to prevent the problem arising again.

To keep learners and wider customers informed about our progress in resolving their problems.

To monitor and analyse complaints regularly and use this information to improve our systems and services in the future.

LEARNERS STUDYING UNIVERSITY FRANCHISED HE COURSES:

(University of South Wales, University of Worcester, Aberystwyth University)

The contract between the University and Coleg Gwent states that:

Partners will access the Student Complaints Regulations and Procedures where the complaint relates to academic matters; where matters are the responsibility of the partner, for example crèche facilities, learners should access Coleg Gwent's Complaints Procedures.

Where Coleg Gwent's Complaints Procedures are followed, a Completion of Procedures letter (Appendix E) must be issued to the learner on closing the complaint. The complainant will then be able to access the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA) where they wish to appeal against the decision. Refer to Appendix D.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Stage 1 (Front Line Resolution)

Use complaints data and themes to identify the root cause of complaints

Take action to reduce the risk of recurrence

Record the details of corrective action in the complaints file

Systematically review complaints performance reports to improve service delivery.

Getting help to make your complaint

The college understands that some individuals may be unable, or reluctant, to make a complaint themselves. Complaints will be accepted from the representative of a person who is dissatisfied with the service provided. The college can take complaints from a friend or relative if they have been given consent to complain on the individual's behalf.

The college is committed to ensuring services are easy to use for everyone. In line with statutory equalities duties, the college will always take care to make reasonable adjustments to help individuals access and use college services.

This information can be made available in other languages and formats, such as large font or Braille. Please contact Learner Services on campus.

APPENDIX A

Examples of types of complaint

A failure to provide a service, or an inadequate quality or standard of service

The admissions process

The disciplinary process

A request for a service or for information, which we have not actioned or answered Our policies

Wrong information about academic programmes or our services

The quality and availability of facilities and learning resources

Accessibility of our buildings or services

The behaviour of a learner, member of staff or contractor

Treatment by or attitude of a member of staff or contractor

Disagreement with a decision where you cannot use another procedure, e.g. appeal

Our failure to follow the proper administrative process

Your complaint may involve more than one college service or be about someone working on our behalf, such as a contractor.

There are some things that we would not categorise as a complaint, either because they are requests or because we have other policies and procedures to deal with them. These include:

A request for information or an explanation of policy or practice

A disagreement with academic judgement

A claim for compensation against the college

Issues that are in court or have already been heard by a court or tribunal

Disagreement with a decision where a right of appeal exists, e.g. Learner Appeals Policy

A request for information under the Data Protection or Freedom of Information Act

A grievance by a member of staff

An attempt to have the college open up or reconsider a complaint we have concluded or given our final decision on.

If other procedures or rights of appeal can help you resolve your concerns, we will give information and advice to help.

APPENDIX B

RAG Criteria: Distinction between Serious and Non- Serious Complaints

Rating	Criteria	Example complaint/issues
Red	Serious issues which require a full investigation and are likely to have a reputational impact on the college, or where the complaint results in irrepairable damage to the college/customer and/or learner/peer relationship	 Hate crime Sexual harassment Persistent systematic bullying or bullying of a more serious nature Abusive language/threats Carrying of offensive weapons Being under the influence of drugs (including alcohol), in possession of drugs or buying or selling drugs on the college premises
Amber	Issues that require further investigation and are likely to have a negative impact on the customer experience, e.g. where the college fails, or continues to fail to provide an acceptable standard of service or where learner/staff behaviour provides a cause for concern	 Unhelpful staff and poor customer service provided Learner refused enrolment Invitation to enrol not sent out Learner's examination not submitted for remarking Learner unable to progress to L3 with insufficient explanation Misunderstanding between learner and lecturer concerning classroom behaviour of staff
Green	Minor issues which are likely to have a minimal impact on the customer experience and which are straightforward and easily resolved, requiring little or no investigation	 Lectures or trip cancelled Learner's car blocked in car park Bus failed to stop at campus First time request for grant information not responded to Confusion over level of skills class to attend Confusion over timetable and room

Note: Customer refers to prospective learners, learners, parents, employers, members of the public and other stakeholders
